

Signal Words and Phrases

Words that indicate another main idea or example follows: Also In addition Furthermore Moreover Another	Words that add emphasis: Most important Remember that Pay attention to Above all A key idea; The main idea Of primary concern Most significant
Words that indicate that an example follows: For example For instance To illustrate Specifically Such as	Words that indicate that categories or division will be named or explained: Types Kinds Parts Characteristics Groups Categories
Words that indicate an exception to a fact: However Nevertheless Although Though But Except	Words that indicate cause or effects: Because Since For Due to Reason Cause Consequently Result Effect
Words that indicate a sequence: Steps Stages Numbers (1, 2, 3...) First, second, third...	Words that indicate that items are being compared: Similar Like Advantages Different In contrast Disadvantages Equally On the other hand Contrary to
Words that indicate a conclusion: Therefore Consequently In conclusion Finally So	Other ideas words.....

--	--