Statement of Financial Guarantee and Affidavit of Support

U.S. Government Requirement: In order to issue the I-20, William Peace University must receive evidence that a student is financially capable of paying tuition, room/board, and personal expenses for their first year of study, and that barring any unforeseen change in circumstances, adequate funds will be available in the same amount throughout his or her academic program. The Form I-20 will not be authorized until this form is completed and returned to William Peace University. Immigration documents cannot be issued without the completion and submission of this form, along with the required financial documentation and any additional supporting documents.

Sources of Funding: Students must show proof of funding for their first year of studies. Financial support may come from any combination of sources, including academic and institutional scholarships and grants, personal, family, or sponsored funds. All signatures and documentation provided must be originals and must be less than six months old.
